Iraqi News Agency (23 April 2024)

Iraqi PM Muhammed S. Al-Sudani chaired the session where the general situations in the country were discussed, along with various service, economic, and social files as topics listed on the agenda were discussed, and necessary decisions were made regarding them, according to a statement by the PM Media Office received by the Iraqi News Agency - INA.

Al-Sudani outlined the outcomes of his official visit to the United States, detailing the benefits for Iraq across economic, political, security, and regional stability aspects. "The visit included the signing of several memorandums of understanding and partnerships involving Iraqi public and private sectors and leading American companies and financial institutions."
