
CHINA EVACUATES OVER 100,000 AS HEAVY RAIN CONTINUES TO LASH SOUTH

- 24.04.2024

Al Jazeera (23 April 2024)

China has evacuated more than 100,000 people as heavy rain continues to lash the southern province of Guangdong.

Authorities raised the highest level of alarm on Tuesday as the storms showed no sign of letting up. Flooding has already killed four people, with another 10 reported missing, in just the latest episode of extreme weather to hit China as climate change affects the country.
