Kabar (24 April 2024)

President of the Kyrgyz Republic Sadyr Zhaparov today, as part of his state visit to Baku, held negotiations with President of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev in a limited format.

During the meeting, issues of deepening bilateral cooperation in the trade, economic, investment, energy, transport, agricultural, cultural and humanitarian spheres were discussed.

The parties noted with satisfaction that the high-level negotiations held in Bishkek and Baku over the past two years, as well as the agreements reached and documents signed, not only gave an important impetus to cooperation, but also filled the interaction between the two countries with completely new, high-quality content.
