Hürriyet Daily News (16 May 2024)

Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan has emphasized the advancements in the collaborative effort against terrorism with Iraq, underscoring the imperative for Türkiye's neighbor to enhance its infrastructure to further bolster the efforts.

"Iraq has undergone a painful process for the last 20 years. There has been a situation that favors the terrorist organization [PKK]," Fidan said during a televised interview with private broadcaster NTV on May 15.

The minister asserted Türkiye's strides in combating terrorism alongside Iraq but underscored the need for the country to address its foundational challenges.
