
SLOVAKIA PM ATTACKER 'MAY NOT HAVE BEEN LONE WOLF'

- 20.05.2024

BBC News (19 May 2024)

The man suspected of attempting to assassinate Prime Minister Robert Fico may not have been working alone, Slovakia's interior minister says.

A team is investigating the possibility Wednesday's attack was not carried out by a lone wolf, as previously believed, Matus Sutaj Estok told reporters on Sunday.

Mr Fico's life is no longer in danger following hours of surgery, but the 59-year-old still requires intensive care, his deputy said earlier.
