'This is a serious problem because this is not only a problem for us but also for security of entire Black Sea,' says Salome Zourabichvili.

Georgian President Salome Zourabichvili claimed that Russia started work on establishing a naval base in the country's breakaway region of Abkhazia.

"Initial work is being done (by Russia) for the Ochamchire Base. This is a serious problem because it is not only a problem for us, but also for the security of the entire Black Sea region," Zourabichvili said during a press conference with the media in Tbilisi late Monday.
