Those who dream that they will do something, they won't. Serbia is moving forward and they cannot and will not stop it, says Aleksandar Vucic

Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic said Friday that Russian intelligence warned him about preparations for a coup in Serbia with the support of Western powers.

The Serbian portal Novosti newspaper reported earlier that Russian security services warned Vucic in writing that mass riots are being prepared in Serbia with the ultimate goal of a coup and the overthrow of the nations legitimately elected leadership.
