President of Kazakhstan Kassym-Jomart Tokayev highlighted the growing mutual interest and ambition to strengthen regional strategic relationships during the meeting of the heads of state of Central Asia and the Federal Chancellor of Germany Olaf Scholz on Sept. 17, Akorda press service reported.

I see this as proof of the Central Asian countries and Germanys interest in and ambition to deepen the regional strategic relationship. Our meeting is intended not only to summarize the results of our joint work but also to outline new ways to deepen cooperation, said Tokayev.

Tokayev welcomed Scholz, President of the Kyrgyz Republic Sadyr Japarov, President of Tajikistan Emomali Rahmon, President of Turkmenistan Serdar Berdimuhamedov and President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev in Astana and expressed gratitude for their participation and support.
