Boyko Borissov, leader of Bulgarias largest party, GERB, on Thursday called for the resignation of Macedonian Deputy Prime Minister and Transport Minister Alexander Nikoloski over his comments about Bulgarian President Rumen Radev and Bulgaria, further adding fuel to the ongoing missing flag scandal.

Borissov, whose government imposed a veto on North Macedonias EU integration at the end of 2021, said that if Nikoloski does not resign, neither the Bulgarian president, nor the ministers, nor the parties should see each other and talk with them.
