ArmenPress (23 October 2024)

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Armenia, referring to the attack at the Turkish Aerospace Industries' (TUSAS) headquarters in Ankara on Wednesday, has stated that Armenia is against the manifestation of any form of terrorism and such violent actions.

As shown by today's attack in Ankara, no justification exists for terrorism & harming innocent people. Armenia, as expressed numerous times, is against any form of terrorism & such acts of violence, reads the post issued by the foreign ministry on X.
