TURKMENISTAN, CHINA ADVISE ON TACKLING CYBERSECURITY CONUNDRUM

30.10.2024

Kabar (30 October 2024)

Turkmenistan and China have conducted discussions on cyber security with representatives from the pertinent agencies of both nations in Ashgabat, Trend reports via Turkmenistan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

During the meeting, the parties kicked around the results of their joint efforts and the follow-through on agreements they had previously struck in the realm of international information security.

The sides also exchanged views on strengthening international cyber security, zeroing in on the current hurdles and the bright spots for collaboration in this field. After the consultations wrapped up, it was agreed to keep sharing insights to bolster the security of our information systems.
