ZURABISHVILI CALLS FOR WESTERN PRESSURE TO KEEP GEORGIA ON EUROPEAN PATH

- 30.10.2024

RFE/RL (29 October 2024)

Anton Kokaia

President Salome Zurbishvili of Georgia has called on the West to pressure the ruling Georgian Dream party to reexamine the results of a "stolen" election over the weekend or risk seeing the Caucasus nation -- an EU candidate with NATO membership aspirations -- lose its "European perspective."

Speaking to RFE/RL's Georgian Service in Tbilisi on October 29, Zurbishvili said Georgia's European and Western partners need to exert "extreme pressure" on the authorities "so that they review the results of the elections and review the amount of votes that have been stolen."
