We place special importance on further expanding Azerbaijani-Algerian relations, President of the Republic of Azerbaijan Ilham Aliyev said in a congratulatory letter to the President of the Algerian People's Democratic Republic Abdelmadjid Tebboune on the occasion of Algeria's national holiday - Revolution Day, Trend reports.

"November 1, 1954, is forever inscribed in the history of the brotherly Algerian people as a page of heroism, symbolizing the struggle for independence and freedom, as well as an indomitable will. Despite enduring over a century of brutal colonial policies, unprecedented violence, and crimes against humanity and war crimes, your people have never lost their determination for independence. Through great sacrifice and courage, they achieved their freedom at the cost of the lives and blood of millions of martyrs who gave their lives for the Motherland.

Currently, the dynamic development of Azerbaijan-Algeria relations is gratifying. We place special importance on further expanding these relations and enriching our cooperation with new content, both bilaterally and multilaterally.
