Kabar (21 November 2024)

Kyrgyzstan and Germany eased the conditions for the use of official documents in both countries.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Kyrgyzstan reported the Convention abolishing the requirement of legalization of foreign official documents, signed in the city of The Hague on Oct.5, 1961, entered into force between Kyrgyzstan and Germany on Oct. 7, 2024.

This became possible due to the fact that the Federal Republic of Germany withdrew its reservation (objection) and agreed to the accession of the Kyrgyz Republic to the Convention.
