Azerbaijans foreign ministry on Thursday rejected an offer by Secretary of State Antony Blinken to mediate talks with Yerevan on the margins of an OSCE summit currently underway in Malta, Azerbaijani media reported.

Blinken reportedly suggested that, while in Malta, he would mediate a meeting between the foreign ministers of Armenia and Azerbaijan, Ararat Mirzoyan and Jeyhun Bayramov.

The media reports suggest that Azerbaijan categorically rejected Blinkens offer, saying that the Biden Administration, in general, is pursuing an unjust and biased policy toward Azerbaijan, the APA news agency reported, citing a diplomatic source.
