Kosovapress (18 December 2024)

The emissary of the European Union for the Kosovo-Serbia dialogue, Miroslav Lajçak, after yesterday's meeting with the representative of Kosovo, Besnik Bislimi, and with the representative of Serbia, Petar Petkovic, told about the topics they discussed.

Through a post on X, Lajçak said that he is happy about the agreement on the joint commission for the missing, while he mentioned that the normalization of relations means integration in the EU and that there is no separation between the two.
