
CHINA CALLS PENTAGON REPORT ON CHINESE MILITARY CORRUPTION 'IRRESPONSIBLE'

- 19.12.2024

CNA (19 December 2024)

China's foreign ministry urged the United States to stop issuing "irresponsible reports" after the Pentagon said that corruption in the Chinese military might have disrupted the country's military modernisation goals.

The report ignores facts and is full of prejudice, Lin Jian, a ministry spokesperson, said in a Thursday (Dec 19) press conference.

Corruption in China's military may have disrupted its progress towards its 2027 military modernisation goals, the Pentagon said in its annual report on Beijing's military that was released on Wednesday.
