Armenia has not yet asked the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) to dissolve its Minsk Group on Nagorno-Karabakh, Prime Minister Nikol Pashinians office indicated on Saturday.

The Republic of Armenia is considering the possibility of appealing to the OSCE regarding the dissolution of the Minsk Group, it told RFE/RLs Armenian Service in a written statement.

The group had been set up in 1992 to deal with the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict. It was for decades co-headed by the United States, Russia and France. Azerbaijan has listed its dissolution among its preconditions for signing a peace deal with Armenia.
