Today, the next hearing commenced in the criminal case regarding crimes against peace and humanity, war crimes, including the conduct of aggressive warfare, genocide, forced population relocation, persecution, torture, robbery, and other illegal acts committed by Armenia and its armed forces, as well as the so-called "Nagorno-Karabakh Republic" created by Armenia in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan, Trend reports.

Judge Zeynal Agayev of the Baku Military Court is leading the court's preparatory session at the Baku Judicial Complex.

The preparatory session began on January 17. The defendants are provided with Armenian-language interpreters and defense attorneys.
