China on Tuesday called for a new starting point in ties with Washington under newly inaugurated US President Donald Trump, state media reported.

Beijing is willing to work with the new US administration * in line with the principles of mutual respect, peaceful coexistence and win-win cooperation, maintaining communication, strengthening cooperation, properly managing differences, and driving greater progress in China-US relations from a new starting point, Foreign Ministry spokesman Guo Jiakun told reporters in the Chinese capital.

Guo was responding to questions about whether Beijing will invite Trump to visit China.
