Uzbekistans Oliy Majlis (parliament) has approved a bill in its third reading to join the Eurasian Development Bank (EDB), paving the way for the nations integration into another major international financial institution.

The legislative move, discussed during a regular meeting of the Legislative Chamber, stresses Uzbekistans commitment to expanding its long-term investment portfolio in critical sectors such as infrastructure, energy, and industry.

By joining the EDB, Uzbekistan aims to secure access to additional financing opportunities that will bolster the country's economic growth and development.
