Jeyhun Bayramov expresses concern over Armenias territorial claims, says his country will continue its constructive efforts on this matter.

Azerbaijans foreign minister on Wednesday underscored the importance of signing a peace agreement with Armenia while expressing concern over Armenias constitutional territorial claims against Azerbaijan and what he described as revengeful tendencies.

A peace agreement is of great importance, but the fact that Armenias Constitution still contains territorial claims against Azerbaijan and the existence of vengeful tendencies in the country are concerning. Azerbaijan will continue its constructive efforts on this matter, Jeyhun Bayramov said at a joint press conference in Ankara.
