President Kassym-Jomart Tokayev visited Amman on Feb. 19 to bolster cooperation, trade, and economic relations between Kazakhstan and Jordan.

During his meetings with King Abdullah II Bin Al Hussein and Crown Prince Al Hussein, Tokayev extended congratulations on the silver jubilee of King Abdullah II's reign, emphasizing Jordan's continued prosperity and global influence through innovative initiatives.

King Abdullah II expressed optimism about new opportunities for the private sector across various fields, including trade, investment, industry, agriculture, transport, tourism, energy, digitization, and pharmaceuticals, highlighting the potential for enhanced economic collaboration.
