
BULGARIAN NATIONALISTS VANDALISE EU BUILDING IN PROTEST AGAINST PLANS TO JOIN EUROZONE

-

24.02.2025

Euronews (22 February 2025)

By Gavin Blackburn with AP

Police said that several demonstrators had been arrested, while some officers had been injured during the clashes.

Police in Bulgaria's capital have clashed with nationalist protesters who are demanding the government scrap plans to bring the country into the eurozone.

Around 1,000 protesters gathered in front of the Sofia office of the European Commission, the European Union's executive branch, and began throwing red paint and firecrackers at the building.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: