China and Russia need to continue to strengthen coordination in international and regional affairs, President Xi Jinping told Mr Sergei Shoigu, the secretary of Russia's Security Council, in Beijing on Feb 28, Chinese state media reported.

China and Russia should maintain close communications at various levels, Mr Xi said, adding that both countries will usher in "a series of significant agendas".

In a separate meeting on Feb 28 with Mr Shoigu, Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi said Sino-Russia relations would remain "rock-solid and unshakable", a statement from the Chinese foreign ministry said.
