Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyans claims in an interview with the Brazilian newspaper Folha that little attention has been paid to the needs of the Global South and developing countries in previous COP meetings are unfounded, Azerbaijan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs stated in its commentary on the interview, News.Az informs.

It seems that the Armenian Foreign Minister is completely unaware of the climate negotiations that have taken place within the framework of the COP.

It is known that significant decisions have been made for the Global South in the field of combating climate change at all COPs so far.
