
KAZAKHSTAN, CHINA PLAN TO ENHANCE COOPERATION AHEAD OF KEY SUMMIT

-

26.03.2025

Trend News Agency (26 March 2025)

Kazakh President Kassym-Jomart Tokayev met with Liu Jianchao, Head of the International Department of the Communist Party of Chinas Central Committee, to discuss the ongoing development of the bilateral relationship, Trend reports.

During the meeting, President Tokayev emphasized that the Kazakhstan-China "eternal comprehensive strategic partnership" is progressing on a positive trajectory and looking toward the future. He expressed confidence that the upcoming visit of Chinese President Xi Jinping to Astana, for the second "Central Asia-China" summit in June 2025, would open new avenues for strategic cooperation.

The Kazakh president also expressed support for President Xi Jinpings global initiatives aimed at building a just world order based on the principles of international law and the UN Charter. Tokayev reaffirmed Kazakhstans unwavering commitment to the "One China" policy.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: