Daryo (24 April 2025)

Kazakhstan and Afghanistan signed a protocol of intent to begin work on the Turgundi [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Boldak railway line, marking a major milestone in regional transport cooperation. The agreement was reached during the visit of Kazakhstans Deputy Prime Minister - Minister of National Economy Serik Zhumangarin to Afghanistan.

The protocol, signed between Kazakhstans Ministry of Trade and Integration and Afghanistans Ministry of Public Works, secures Kazakhstans commitment to participate in the railway project, starting with the Turgundi [REDACTED] section. This agreement is set to pave the way for a broader cooperation framework in transport and logistics between the two nations.
