This peace process and peace agreement must not be missed, says Nikol Pashinyan

Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan on Monday declared his readiness to personally initiate constitutional changes should the countrys Constitutional Court not approve the peace deal with Azerbaijan when it is signed.

In an address to the 2nd Yerevan Dialogue international forum held in the Armenian capital, Pashinyan said the countrys Constitutional Court must check the peace deal between Armenia and Azerbaijan once it is signed to clarify if the agreement complies with the constitution.
