Iraqi Prime Minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani affirmed to Lebanese President Joseph Aoun on Sunday his continued support to overcome the current challenges.

The Prime Minister's media office stated in a statement received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA), "Prime Minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani held a bilateral meeting with Lebanese President Joseph Aoun at the Government Palace in Baghdad, discussing relations between the two countries and ways to cooperate in various fields, in addition to discussing developments in the region."

The statement added that "the meeting reviewed bilateral relations, common positions, and ways to expand the constructive partnership between Iraq and Lebanon, enhance economic integration at various levels, and increase opportunities for fruitful communication between the public and private sectors in the two brotherly countries."
