After Russia claimed Serbia was supplying ammunition to Ukraine, Belgrade denied all the allegations, with President Aleksandar Vučić stating that he was willing to investigate the claims in conjunction with Moscow.

Russia accused Serbia of exporting arms to Ukraine, calling it a "stab in the back" from one of Moscows longest-standing European allies.

The Russian Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) issued a statement on Thursday claiming that "Serbian defence enterprises, contrary to the neutrality declared by official Belgrade, continue to supply ammunition to Kyiv.
