The green agenda of Azerbaijan is very ambitious, President Ilham Aliyev said on Monday.

The head of state made the remarks as he addressed the official opening of the 30th Caspian Oil and Gas Exhibition, the 13th Caspian Power Exhibition, and the 30th Baku Energy Forum, News.Az reports, citing AZERTAC.

The country, which is rich in oil and gas, is investing - together with foreign investors - in green energy, which demonstrates our responsibility, the president noted.
