Fergana News (18 June 2025)

Uzbekistan and China have successfully concluded bilateral negotiations on Uzbekistans accession to the World Trade Organization (WTO). The corresponding protocol was signed on June 17 in the presence of both countries leaders, Shavkat Mirziyoyev and Xi Jinping, during the Central Asia-China summit in Astana.

According to President Mirziyoyevs press service, the presidents of Uzbekistan and China discussed various aspects of bilateral cooperation as well as regional issues.

The two leaders noted that their nations have reached an unprecedented level of strategic partnership in recent years. Agreements made during the Uzbek presidents state visit to China in January 2024 are reportedly being implemented steadily.
