
CHINA IS BUILDING A 'MEGA-SIZED' CONSUMER ECONOMY, PREMIER SAYS

- 25.06.2025

The Straits Times (25 June 2025)

Premier Li Qiang has projected confidence that China can turn consumption into a driver for the economy, while also portraying his nation as a stabilising force in a rapidly shifting global trade landscape.

Policymakers were growing the nation into a mega-sized consumer powerhouse on top of its solid foundation as a manufacturing power, Mr Li said in a speech at the World Economic Forums meeting in Tianjin on June 25.

This will bring vast markets to enterprises from all countries.
