An official reception was held by the Mission of the Republic of Azerbaijan to NATO on the occasion of the 107th anniversary of the establishment of the Armed Forces of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

For the first time, the event was attended by the NATO Assistant Secretary General for Political Affairs and Security Policy, Ambassador Boris Ruge, and the Chairman of the NATO Military Committee, Admiral Giuseppe Cavo Dragone, as well as other senior officials of the Alliance, and the ambassadors and military representatives of NATO member and partner countries accredited to NATO.

In his opening remarks at the official reception, Jafar Huseynzada, Head of the Mission of the Republic of Azerbaijan to NATO, stated that the Armed Forces of Azerbaijan, which guard the sovereignty and territorial integrity of our country, have gone through a difficult and challenging path since the early 1990s. He emphasized that thanks to the great attention and efforts of National Leader Heydar Aliyev and the victorious Commander-in-Chief, President Ilham Aliyev, the Armed Forces have today transformed into a capable, professional, and technologically advanced force.
