On June 25, 2025, President of Kyrgyzstan Sadyr Zhaparov paid an official visit to Malaysia [] inaugural journey of a Kyrgyz leader in three decades, Trend reports.

The visit followed up on Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahims trip to Bishkek in May last year. Zhaparovs visit marked a significant step in the development of bilateral relations and clearly indicated that Bishkek and Kuala Lumpur intend to take their cooperation to a new level.

Following the meeting between Zhaparov and Ibrahim, the two sides signed a joint statement on strengthening cooperation toward a strategic partnership for future prosperity. This step confirms the mutual interest of both countries in working together amid a changing global economy.
