A new parliamentary friendship group with Kyrgyzstan will be established in Tajikistans House of Representatives, Speaker of the House Faizali Idizoda announced, Trend reports via the administration of the Kyrgyz president.

He made the statement during a meeting with Kyrgyz President Sadyr Zhaparov today as part of the president's official visit to Tajikistan.

Idizoda noted that the group will help strengthen inter-parliamentary ties and enhance bilateral cooperation. During the talks, he also wished Kyrgyzstan success in its chairmanship of the Collective Security Treaty Organization (CSTO) and acknowledged the countrys active role in regional processes.
