The United Arab Emirates and the Republic of Azerbaijan have officially signed a Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement (CEPA), marking a significant step forward in bilateral relations focused on trade, investment, and sustainable development.

The signing took place in Abu Dhabi during a high-level meeting between UAE President His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and Azerbaijani President Ilham Aliyev, who is on a working visit to the UAE.

The agreement is expected to usher in a new era of economic cooperation between the two nations, focusing on investment, food security, renewable energy, environmental collaboration, and broader development goals.
