The European Union has reacted after statements by former Serbian Prime Minister Ivica Dacic, who accused Brussels of "deceiving" Serbia in signing the 2013 Agreement with Kosovo.

In a response to N1 television, the EU has rejected these accusations, emphasizing that the agreement was reached freely and with full awareness by both parties - both Serbia and Kosovo.

"Both Kosovo and Serbia have entered into the agreements fully consciously and of their own free will," the EU's response states, thus denying Dacic's claims.
