On August 6, Armenian Deputy Prime Minister Mher Grigoryan held a meeting with the Head of the European Union Delegation to Armenia, Ambassador Vasilis Maragos.

The Armenian government's press office confirmed the meeting took place, Caliber.Az reports via Armenian media outlets.

Discussions focused on key issues currently shaping Armenia-EU cooperation. The two sides also reviewed the status of agreements reached during Grigoryan's recent visit to Brussels and Luxembourg, which took place from July 15 to 17.
