
THAILAND, CAMBODIA AGREE TO COMPLY WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW ON CAPTURED SOLDIERS AFTER 'POSITIVE' TALKS IN KL

-

07.08.2025

CNA (7 August 2025)

Rashvinjeet S Bedi

The two Southeast Asian countries also agreed to promptly consult one another in case of any armed conflict to prevent it from escalating.

Thailand and Cambodia have agreed to comply with international humanitarian law in treating each others captured soldiers, and will facilitate the dignified and timely return of deceased individuals.

The two Southeast Asian countries, which agreed to a ceasefire on Jul 28 in their border dispute, met in Kuala Lumpur on Thursday (Aug 7) for an extraordinary general border committee meeting.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: