Turkish President Erdogan underlines that Ankara is working to secure a ceasefire in the face of a major humanitarian tragedy in Gaza.

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan has discussed the Russia-Ukraine peace process and the latest developments in Gaza with his French counterpart, Emmanuel Macron.

In a phone call on Thursday at the request of the French side, the two leaders discussed bilateral relations between Türkiye and France, the Russia-Ukraine peace process, and the latest developments in Gaza, as well as a range of regional and global issues, the Turkish Communications Directorate said in a statement on the Turkish social media platform NSosyal.
