Iraqi News Agency (9 September 2025)

The Iraqi Cabinet held the 36th regular session on Tuesday, chaired by Prime Minister Muhammed S. Al-Sudani, during which the latest developments and public affairs in the country were reviewed, along with several important files and issues.

Prime Minister Al-Sudani reviewed the outcomes of his official visit to NATO headquarters in Brussels, the Belgian capital, made at the official invitation of the NATO Secretary-General, according to a statement from the Prime Minister's Media Office - received by the Iraqi News Agency - INA.

He delivered a speech before the North Atlantic Council, affirming Iraq's keenness to establish a constructive partnership with the Alliance, build comprehensive and long-term relations with member states across various fields, and evaluate NATO's mission in Iraq.
