- 30.09.2025

Daily Sabah (19 September 2025)

Leaders will come together in Azerbaijan's Gabala in October as the Organization of Turkic States weighs more unity in the prominent body amid global and regional developments.

Azerbaijan will host heads of state from the Organization of Turkic States (OTS) on Oct. 7 in the city of Gabala for a summit themed Regional Peace and Security.

The OTS stated in a press release that the summit would host leaders and delegations from member states and observer states, and would deliberate on pressing regional and international issues, enhance cooperation and adopt key documents aimed at further advancing unity, peace and prosperity across the Turkic World.
