Armenia is reportedly finalising a major procurement deal with India for the acquisition of HAL-built Sukhoi Su-30MKI multirole fighter jets, News.Az reports, citing the Indian Defense News portal.

The portal alleges the agreement, currently in advanced negotiation stages, is seen as a strategic response to Azerbaijan's recent purchase of 40 Pakistani-origin JF-17C Block-III fighters.

The deal signifies a deepening of India-Armenia defence cooperation, coming on the heels of multiple arms contracts in recent years, including Pinaka rocket systems, Swathi counter-battery radars, and advanced anti-tank munitions.
