Uzbekistan and Slovenia discussed strengthening cooperation in the areas of pharmaceuticals, logistics, critical minerals, and supporting the entry of Uzbek products into the EU market, Trend reports via the Uzbek Ministry of Investment, Industry, and Trade.

These topics were thoroughly addressed during a meeting between Laziz Kudratov, the Minister of Investment, Industry and Trade of Uzbekistan, and Tanja Fajon, Slovenias Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs, in Slovenia.

As part of the visit, Laziz Kudratov also participated in the meeting of the Uzbekistan Intergovernmental Commission on Economic Cooperation. The parties discussed expanding collaboration in trade, transport, agriculture, digital transformation, education, and other promising sectors, reaffirming their commitment to intensifying bilateral dialogue.
