The Caspian Post (22 November 2025)

A delegation from the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly, led by Luis Graca, Deputy Chair of the Assembly and Special Representative on South Caucasus, is set to visit Armenia from November 22 to 26.

During the visit, the delegation will meet with Sargis Khandanyan, Chair of the Standing Committee on Foreign Relations of the National Assembly of Armenia, The Caspian Post informs via Armenian media.

Armenia has been an active participant in the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE) since it gained independence in 1991. The OSCE provides a platform for Armenia to engage with other member states on issues such as security, conflict resolution, human rights, and democratic development.
