Foreign Minister Wang Yi has called on China and Uzbekistan to steer the direction of the development of bilateral relations, coordinate cooperation across various fields, and build China-Uzbekistan ties into a new benchmark for good neighborliness, solidarity, and mutual trust between countries.

Wang made the remarks on Friday when hosting the second strategic dialogue with Uzbek Foreign Minister Bakhtiyor Saidov in Tashkent.

He called on the two countries to make full use of the strategic dialogue platform to implement the important consensus reached between the two heads of state.
