
UKRAINE ANTI-CORRUPTION AGENTS SEARCH HOME OF ZELENSKY'S TOP ADVISER

-

28.11.2025

BBC News (28 November 2025)

Paul Kirby, James Waterhouse

Ukraine's anti-corruption agencies have begun searching the apartment of President Volodymyr Zelensky's chief of staff Andriy Yermak.

One of the two agencies, anti-corruption bureau Nabu, confirmed that its investigative searches had been authorised and said further details would follow.

A corruption scandal has engulfed several figures close to Zelensky, though neither he nor his right-hand man Yermak have been accused of any wrongdoing.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: