The OSCE has formally completed the dissolution of the Minsk Process and all structures linked to it, marking the end of the decades-long mediation format on the former Armenia conflict, Azernews reports.

According to an official OSCE statement, the process was finalized at 23:59 on 30 November 2025, in line with the Ministerial Council Decision MC.DEC/1/25, adopted on 1 September 2025. The decision followed a joint appeal by Armenia and Azerbaijan to the Finnish OSCE Chairmanship.

The OSCE emphasized that the completion of all administrative procedures signifies the definitive closure of the Minsk Process.
